

Fabio Bottazzo – Profile

Guitarist, composer and educator.

In 1996 he attended the "Berklee College of Music" summer classes in Perugia (Italy). In 2002 he graduated at "UM" in Rome and studied jazz guitar with Fabio Zeppetella. He attended various masterclasses, including those of Wolfgang Muthspiel and Pat Metheny. He studied for a short period with Charlie Banacos too.

In 2004 he moved to Japan. He has recorded two albums to his name, "Beginning Blues" (2007) and "It's No Coincidence "(2010). The latter, recorded with Yasuhito Mori (b) and Sebastiaan Kaptein (d), was ranked 14th in the list "My Best Jazz Album 2010", by the specialized japanese magazine "Jazz Hihyo". In 2013 he participates in the making of the "a.s.k." album "Welcoming the Day", with Amanda Tiffin (v, p) Seigo Matsunaga (b) and Sebastiaan Kaptein (d).